

AL-ALEEM MEDICAL COLLEGE

(A Company set up under Section 42 of the Companies Act 2017)

GULAB DEVI TEACHING HOSPITAL, FEROZEPUR ROAD LAHORE, PAKISTAN

Policy for Provision of funding, technical support and facilities of Co-Curricular opportunities of medical students Guidelines, Policies and Procedures

Purpose:

As, active involvement of students in co and extracurricular activities is regarded beneficial in encouragement of healthy lifestyle and personality development, it may also affect the holistic development of individuals. Therefore, Al-Aleem Medical College has shaped a policy regarding funding, technical support and facilities regarding co-curricular opportunities for the students.

Scope:

This policy Applies to All medical students at Al- Aleem Medical College. Gulab Devi Teaching Hospital Lahore.

Policy Statement:

This policy states that at Al-Aleem Medical College, medical students shall have access to funding and technical support as well as to avail facilities for their co-curricular events and opportunities, after approval from competent authority.

The College's administration and finance department shall be responsible for provision of funding, technical and institutional support for medical students for their co- curricular events, in accordance with PMDC guidelines through proper channel.

Category of Co-Curricular & Extra-Curricular Activities:

- 1) Literary and Debating Events within the College, inter- college and at university level.
- 2) Sports Events.
- 3) Annual Dinner

AL-ALEEM MEDICAL COLLEGE

(A Company set up under Section 42 of the Companies Act 2017)

GULAB DEVI TEACHING HOSPITAL, FEROZEPUR ROAD LAHORE, PAKISTAN

- 4) Welcome and White Coat Ceremony
- 5) Convocation.
- 6) National Ceremonies
- 7) Community study tours.
- 8) Dramatics and Arts related events.
- 9) Cultural day activities.
- 10) Students Achievements and Award Ceremonies.
- 11) Other miscellaneous recreational activities.

The College may provide partial or complete financial assistance and support for the above-mentioned activities on its own or as per request by the students of Al- Aleem Medical College through an application processed via Student's Affairs Department and recommended by concerned department/authority.

Prof. Dr. Hamid Hassan
Principal